PLAYER CONDUCT

Tennis is a game that requires cooperation and courtesy from all participants. All coaches, participants and fans have a responsibility to be familiar with the basic rules and customs of tennis.

All spectators, players and coaches are restricted to the areas outside the courts during the progress of a match. Unnecessary noise or distractions are not customary at a tennis match. The applauding of errors is considered very poor etiquette. Applause is in order for winning shots or excellent rallies. The Tournament Manager is empowered to remove anyone displaying unacceptable conduct from the area and may temporarily suspend play, if necessary.

Players, coaches and fans should not talk above a whisper while the ball is in play. Any sound or movement that is made to distract an opponent is not allowed.

Team members and their spectators shall not harass opposing team players. Electronic sound devices shall not be used during play.

Players should be warned before the start of a tournament that unsportsmanlike displays will result in enforcement of the point penalty system. It is the responsibility of the tournament manager to assess the penalty immediately upon learning of the infraction from tournament management staff or a neutral coach. Coaches should penalize their own players. Some displays of unsportsmanlike acts include: Racquet abuse, Cursing, Delay of Game, Unacceptable Behavior toward Opponent, Poor Behavior directed toward a coach or official.
