2022 CWAC Girls' Golf All-Conference Team

Below are the all-conference teams and specialty award winners for the Central Washington Athletic Conference for the 2022 girls' golf season. All-conference teams were selected based on regular-season player standings from six conference pod tournaments, with six first-team selections and five each for second team and honorable mention.

Freshman Jayme Dwight of Ephrata High School earned Most Valuable Player accolades after posting the highest standings point total during the conference season, and then added a District 5/6 individual championship on Thursday, May 19. Selah High School head coach Jeff Blain was selected as CWAC Coach of the Year after guiding the Vikings to the regular-season conference title as well as the District 5/6 team title on Thursday. Othello High School was voted to receive the Team Sportsmanship award.
